

STRUGGLE & Harmony: Living Faith in Contemporary Society

"We regard our living together not as an unfortunate mishap warranting endless competition among us but as a deliberate act of God to make us a community of brothers and sisters jointly involved in the quest for a composite answer to the varied problems of life."

Steven Biko

STRUGGLE & Harmony is a series of two panel discussions followed by a guest lecture initiated by Concordia Multi-Faith Chaplaincy in concert with its multi-faith associates to promote greater understanding and sense of community within the University. The topics covered will include:

Freedom of Expression/ Freedom of Speech – The challenges for religious traditions and secular institutions

Religious Traditions, Holy Days and Precepts – Opening a window of understanding into your neighbours' practices

Finding Common Values

Concordia UNIVERSITY

Guest Lecture:

Encounter of Worldviews: Battle or Fecundation

Monday, February 25, 2003

6:00 to 8:00 PM

Hall Building – Room H-110

Guest Speaker

Dr. Farhang Rajaee

Associate Professor of Political Science and Humanities at Carleton University

For more information call
Daryl Ross - 848-3585 or Ellie Hummel - 848-3590